

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RISK AND FULL RELEASE FROM LIABILITY/INDEMNITY

The undersigned (referred to herein as "Guest") acknowledges that he/she is well aware of the following:

All activities on the ranch can involve a substantial degree of danger and risk of injury. All guests must exercise good judgment and stay alert at all times. Some, but not all, of the dangers and risks will result from the following:

Roads. Extreme caution should be exercised while traveling the main ranch road. Vehicles are allowed to drive only on the main ranch road leading to the lodge. Dangerous conditions are not marked or designated as such and the possibility of a vehicle's unforeseen mechanical failure at any time must be accepted.

Walking and Climbing. Some of the terrain is extremely rough, steep and rocky, and thus very dangerous. Extreme caution should be exercised at all times, to the extent that each step taken must always be chosen with the utmost care. Dangerous conditions are not marked or designated as such. All guests should be in good physical condition before attempting to walk or climb any of the difficult terrain. No walking or hiking is allowed around the animal pens.

Snakes and Insects. Poisonous snakes and insects may be encountered anywhere on the ranch. All persons should remain alert for these dangers.

Animals. Any animal on the ranch has the capability of causing bodily harm. All persons must use caution when in the proximity of any animal. DO NOT FEED THE ANIMALS!

Health. The guest acknowledges that he/she suffers from no medical condition or allergy that makes visiting the ranch more hazardous for guest than for a normal individual without such medical condition or allergy. Guest will bring all his/her appropriate medications and emergency first aid materials (including treatments for stings and bites) and insect repellent. Landowner and/or Circle H Ranch are not expected to furnish any of the same.

Furthermore, guest(s) agrees that:
